

About HCP

Through research, training, and consulting, the goal of the Human Capital Program is to increase the acumen of small business owners on current employment practices, law, regulations, and compliance requirements.

To reach our goals we collaborate with:

- Economic development programs, consultants, and advisors
- Chambers of commerce
- Industry associations
- Corporate community
- Local, state, and federal agencies and commissions